Approval of Minutes	Steve Waltrip made a motion to approve the Public Protection Committee minutes of February 25, 2016, Mike Elliott seconded, and motion carried unanimously.	Motion carried
Peddlers and Solicitors Ordinance	1 Discussion ensued. Trustee Elliott suggested looking at surrounding community ordinances instead of reinventing the wheel. Chief Hallock noted that if a resident has a solicitation complaint, they should call dispatch instead of the officer's personal cell phone. Trustee Stewart added they could include that in the proposed community letter by Larry Moore. Trustee Pinkerton stated she would call surrounding communities and report back to the Committee.	Noted
Golf Cart Ordinance	2 Discussion ensued regarding Jacksonville's recently passed golf cart ordinance. Much discussion ensued around crossing over into the Jacksonville area, permits and registration of the golf carts in both Jacksonville and South Jacksonville. In response to a question, Chief Hallock stated the rules would be enforced per the officer's discretion as in the Illinois Vehicle Code. Trustee Elliott added we needed to develop an enforcement ordinance. Trustee Pinkerton stated she would talk with Jacksonville and report back to the Committee on April 28 th .	Noted
